Departments are required to establish a system of performance evaluations for staff employees that reflect an impartial rating of each staff member's performance and potential for further advancement. Appraisals can be a positive means to assist the staff member in improving job performance. Appraisals provide a supervisor the opportunity to make known the objectives and goals of the department and the College and to clarify what is expected of the employee to contribute to attainment of these goals.

Staff performance evaluations should be conducted on a periodic basis (at least annually) and should not reflect personal prejudice, bias, or favoritism on the part of the supervisor for the rating or review. It is important to be positive in all evaluation meetings. Remember performance is being measured, not the employee's value as a person. Also, remember the employee must know what is expected in job performance and production in order to meet the expectations.

Form Instructions

1. Both the employee and the supervisor should have a copy of the current job description.
2. If you wish to have the employee participate in self-evaluation, provide a copy for the employee to use as a worksheet. Allow enough time for thoughtful review. Self-evaluation is helpful in stimulating discussion of ways in which supervisor and employee can work together to increase effectiveness.

3. Use one of the following ratings to describe the performance of the individual in each of the categories.

- | | |
|--|--|
| (5) Special Merit
Performs Exceptionally Well: | Performance consistently exceeds expectations for the job. |
| (4) Merit
Performs Very Well: | Performance often exceeds expectations for the job |
| (3) Good
Performs Well: | Performance consistently meets expectations for the job |
| (2) Needs Improvement: | Performance sometimes meets expectations for the job |
| (1) Unsatisfactory: | Performance does not meet expectations for the job. |

4. When giving a rating of 5 or 1, the Evaluator must provide an explanation for that rating in the comments section for that category. Use the back of the form or an additional page if necessary.
5. All ratings in each category should be averaged together and listed in the comments section for that category. The final rating is the average of all category average ratings and may be reported as a number with two decimal places. Items that are not applicable (NA) should not be used to calculate the average rating for that category.
6. Supervisor and employee must discuss the evaluation, progress made in performance, and progress toward objectives and goals for the coming year. Both the supervisor and employee must sign the form and both must have an opportunity to add comments.
7. All ratings are reviewed and approved by the next-higher-level supervisor than the one who prepared the rating, campus on-site official, vice president, and president if applicable.
8. The original form with the final ratings, comments and signatures is retained in the employee's file. The employee signs the form to acknowledge that s/he has seen the report and has been apprised of his/her evaluation.
9. The employee has a right to make a written statement or rebuttal on the form at the time of the evaluation and/or within ten working days. If a statement is submitted within ten days, it will be attached to the evaluation report. Supervisors should make employees aware of this opportunity.
10. A copy of the signed evaluation should be provided to the employee within 30 days of the date of the evaluation or upon request.
