Student IT Resources Brochure

PROPER USE OF NOC IT RESOURCES

The intent of computing at Northern is to promote administrative, educational and research efforts. In order to achieve this, computing ethics must be promoted at all times and the following terms and conditions must be adhered to:

- The transmission of any information which would be abusive, profane or sexually offensive to the average person is prohibited. Northern reserves the right to monitor electronic transmissions on the Internet.
- The use of the Internet to conduct any business or activity or solicit the performance of any activity which is unlawful is prohibited.
- Users are expected to follow normal standards of ethics and polite conduct in their use of computing resources.
- The institution reserves the right to limit access to web sites that allow or display abusiveness, obscenity or profanity degrading performance of resources or circumventing computer security measures.

When misuse is discovered, disciplinary measures will be taken against the misuse. The Student Affairs Office of Northern, or its designee, will review violations on a case-by-case basis.

TIPS TO REMEMBER

- Campus Connect can be accessed by logging in to myNOC, and used to view or print your unofficial transcript or schedule. You can also complete enrollment, set up payments and much more.
- Any holds placed on your student record will limit your access in Campus Connect until the hold(s) are cleared. Please contact the Registrar's Office for assistance.
- Blackboard (Northern Online Classes) is located at http://nocbb.onenet.net/ and can also be found on both the NOC homepage and myNOC.
- For students living in the residence halls, please do not access more than one Ethernet port in your assigned dorm room.

Access your NOC Email Account at:
webmail.students.noc.edu
Enter credentials received through the NOC Access tab found on myNOC.
